What is the ASEAN Regional Forum?

The ASEAN Regional Forum is an informal multilateral dialogue of 27 members that seeks to address security issues in the Asia-Pacific region. The list includes the members of the East Asia Summit plus:

How does ASEAN work?

Weekdays. ASEAN is headed by a chair--a position that rotates annually among member state leaders--and is assisted by a secretariat based in Jakarta, Indonesia. Important decisions are usually reached through consultation and consensus guided by the principles of noninterference in internal affairs and peaceful resolution of conflicts.

How does ASEAN compare to other countries?

ASEAN brings together countries with significant differences. Singapore has the highest GDP per capita in the group,at around $91,000,according to 2024 World Bank figures; Myanmar's is the lowest,at around $1,400 for the same year. Demographics differ across the region,too,with many religious and ethnic groups represented.
