Ghanimah ( ????? ) is given as the plural in Lisan al-Arab, but not in al-Qamous al-Muhit, which explicitly states it is a noun with no plural form, such that the dual, Ghanmaan ...

what are the countries in the middle-east? Arabian countries? Arabic? or Arab countries? I just saw "arabic countries" used in a different forum, but don't you usually say ...

Actually, I don't think it stands for Arab, but it reminds me this novel I recently read (the one set in the end of the 50s about which I asked a few questions here !) whose the ...

Arab Christians use the name ??? (Yasu` ) as mentioned in the above quote. Taking into account that correspondence of Arabic Sin and Hebrew Shin, the Koranic name is ...

Hello Do I have to say "UAE" or "The UAE"? There are dozens of shopping centres in the UAE. UAE has dozens of shopping centres. PS: UAE=United Arab Emirates.

Hello Which one is correct "Arab restaurants" or "Arabic restaurants"? I guess we need an adj, so Arabic restaurant is correct.

Hi, I know what Shatt al-Arab is but I don't know what it means literally. I've found two translations but not an exact one. Is it "Coast of the Arabs," "Rivers of the Arabs" or ...

I agree with the others. "I'm Arab" is acceptable to me too (with "Arab" as an adjective rather than a noun, to refer to ethnicity rather than nationality).

Hello, I'm was wondering how you say "sir" or "mister" in Arabic. Also, "miss" or "ma'am". I don't
